Good morning,

It looks like the regulators finally have time on their hands to push old cases to completion.

Dear Mr. Zlotoff:

Our review of filings and information provided with respect to In re Benyam Mulugeta, Case No. 715-09-51900, shows that you are the attorney of record in this case in which a Chapter 11 plan was confirmed on September 25, 2014. The docket reflects that the case remains open and an application for final decree has not been filed. See 11 U.S.C. § 350(a); Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3022.

Please provide our office with an update on the status of this case, including the date by which a final decree or other disposition provided for in the confirmed plan of reorganization will be sought and any reason why the case remains open. We would appreciate a response by September 22, 2022.

In addition, post-confirmation reports for the following quarters are delinquent: Q3-2017, Q4-2017, and Q4-2018. The United States Trustee requests that you promptly cure these deficiencies no later than September 30, 2022. Also, the quarterly report for the 3rd quarter of 2022 is due on or about October 21, 2022.

The failure to timely file post-confirmation quarterly reports and the inability to effectuate substantial consummation of a confirmed plan are both "cause" to dismiss or convert this case. See 11 U.S.C. §§ 1112(b)(4)(F) and (M).

If we do not receive a timely response, the U.S. Trustee may take such further action as is appropriate under the circumstances.

Please contact me if you have any questions. Thank you.
